Learning to be upstanders ... Silverstream pupils spend lunchtime a week in the Kind Kids Club. PHOTO: JESSIC

Hopefully you saw our Kind Kids Club in the Star last week? It's fantastic to see our children getting the recognition they deserve for being proactive against bullying and proactive about providing care and support for each other. This is a point of difference that visitors to our school continually comment on. We have a critical mass of positive care that diminishes the negative behaviours. That's not to say we are naive and suggest that bullying doesn't occur. Bullying is in all corners of life and it's about sending a message that this is not tolerated, not the norm and not cool! Our pink shirt day presented this in a fun way and it was great to see our children getting right behind the event!

Health & Safety

We do take mental health seriously at Silverstream School too. If you suspect your child is feeling negative about school, feeling down or suspect bullying- we are keen to help. Talk to your classroom teacher to get feedback from the school environment and/or come and see me to discuss how we can support your whanau. Our child support worker is also accessible via the referral forms at reception.

Reminders:
